

Annual plan PhD Students Joe Brew

PhD student name: Joseph Brew			Year 1 (2016)		Year 2 (2017)		Year 3 (2018)
Type and level of fellowship	Indicate level of fellowship and if during the year the student should change module		Planned	Achieved	Planned	Achieved	Planned	Achieved
Education plan	Which or what type of courses should the student do during the year (e.g. GCP, GLP, STATA...), if any		Transdisciplinary Global Health (TGH) predoctoral fellow	Transdisciplinary Global Health (TGH) predoctoral fellow
Thesis work	What should the student achieve during the year concerning his/her thesis work (e.g. finalize protocol, start field study, complete field study, complete analysis, prepare a publication etc.)		Health Economics module of ISGlobal Master	Health Economics module of ISGlobal Master
Thesis protocol	Did the student present thesis protocol (DEA or equivalent)? Indicate any relevant changes expected in hypothesis, objectives and/or methods		Collect data from Maragra/Ilovo sugarcane factory; devise and submit protocols related to malaria and economics in Mozambique; write paper on foreign direct investment; write paper, in collaboration with GSK, on cost of scaling up a future malaria vaccine
Congress, presentations	Which congresses, seminars should the student attend or do (include ISGLOBAL or study specific seminars)		NA	NA
Publications	Which papers should the student prepare and/or publish, if any		-African Health Economics Association Conference: Rabat, September 2016 -Phd Student/supervisor conference, September 2016, Barcelona
Stays abroad	Indicate any expected stay abroad stating name of the institute, PI at the foreign institute, period and main objective		-Foreign Direct Investment in Mozambique -School absenteeism and performance and MDAs - Worker absenteeism and productivity and MDAs
Supervisor	Elisa Sicuri		CISM, 6 months, Elisa Sicuri, gather data
Thesis defensive (tentative date):	November 7, 2018
Last update	October 17, 2016							